

Fernando is part of the Corporate/M&A and Civil practice group. He primarily supports corporate matters, although when required, he supports civil and M&A matters as well.

Throughout his career as a corporate lawyer, he has acquired extensive experience in handling various legal matters that cover civil, labor, commercial and administrative matters and processes.

He has a remarkable ability to perform legal research and analysis, draft corporate documents and contracts, prepare convincing legal arguments, as well as comprehensive legal advice to companies.
