Andrea Cuéllar is a lawyer and notary with over 13 years of experience in corporate, financial, civil, and intellectual property law. She holds a Master of Laws (LL.M.) in Business Law from the Pontificia Universidad Católica de Chile and has completed various postgraduate studies.

She has worked with high-profile law firms and companies in El Salvador, providing strategic legal advice in sectors such as energy, telecommunications, construction, and real estate. Her experience includes financial structuring, contracts, offshore companies, and regulatory compliance.

Andrea also stands out for her language skills (advanced English and intermediate French) and her ability to combine technical knowledge with a practical understanding of the legal and business environment.

Representative Cases

Andrea has led legal advisory processes in the structuring of syndicated loans, asset securitization, and financing of solar energy projects, collaborating with international banks and regulated entities. Her experience includes drafting complex guarantees and pre-contractual documents in both English and Spanish.

In the corporate field, she has supported mergers and acquisitions, managed offshore companies, and provided ongoing legal counsel as in-house lawyer for business groups. Her strategic and technical approach has been key in high-impact legal decisions.
