

Andrea Pereira

Senior Associate

apereira@mayora-mayora.com

Tegucigalpa, Honduras

+504 2221 2095

Lawyer specialized in Tax Law with a strong academic background and a steadily advancing career at Mayora & Mayora, Honduras, since 2018. Graduated with honors (Cum Laude) from the National Autonomous University of Honduras and holds a Master's degree in Tax Law from the Central American Technological University (UNITEC).

She stands out for her analytical skills, leadership in strategic tax planning projects, and technical approach to challenging tax adjustments. Her profile combines academic excellence, practical experience, and a commitment to optimizing the tax structure of national and international organizations.

Education

Master's Degree in Tax Law

Central American Technological University (Unitec) | 2025

Lawyer

National Autonomous University of Honduras (UNAH) | Honduras | 2018

Additional Education

Training on Mergers and Acquisitions in Honduras

Tegucigalpa Chamber of Commerce and Industry | 2025

Course on M&A, Business Activity, and Competition Law

Tegucigalpa Chamber of Commerce and Industry | 2019

Course on Current Issues in Tax Law

Tegucigalpa Chamber of Commerce and Industry | 2019

General Course on Intellectual Property

World Intellectual Property Organization Academy | 2017

Trajectory and Legal Experience

- She began her career as a legal assistant at Mayora & Mayora, advancing to Junior Associate and currently serving as Senior Associate.
- She represented Honduras in the Inter-American Human Rights Moot Court Competition in Washington D.C., demonstrating international legal argumentation skills.
- She has led strategic tax planning projects, designing efficient tax structures to maximize companies' financial performance.
- She has consolidated experience in challenging tax adjustments, achieving favorable outcomes through a technical, rigorous, and results-oriented approach.
- She has provided specialized advice in corporate, regulatory, compliance, and financial law, participating in the structuring and negotiation of complex transactions.
- She has supported clients in Due Diligence processes, ensuring a thorough assessment of legal obligations and risks in business reorganization contexts.

Practice Areas

- Administrative
- Tax
- Corporate and M&A
- Competition