Diego Fino joined the Firm in 2021, beginning his professional career as an intern in the Labor Law Department, where he gained experience in the analysis and handling of matters related to labor relations management and regulatory compliance in employment law.

In 2022, he was transferred to the Corporate Department, where he currently serves as a Junior Associate. In this role, he continuously participates in providing corporate legal advice to commercial companies and business groups, supporting the structuring, incorporation, and corporate reorganization of entities, as well as the drafting, review, and updating of corporate documentation. His responsibilities include the drafting and analysis of contracts of various types, legal support in routine corporate operations, addressing legal matters arising from the daily operations of assigned companies, and assisting in compliance and corporate governance processes.

His academic background as a Law Graduate, combined with a professional career developed entirely within the Firm, has enabled him to strengthen a solid technical legal judgment with an emphasis on corporate and company law, focused on risk mitigation and the efficient fulfillment of business clients' legal needs.
