Andrea Renne Cuellar Toledo is an Attorney and Notary Public of the Republic of El Salvador with more than 10 years of experience specializing in Corporate Law, Commercial Law, and Intellectual Property. She holds a strong academic background in Business Law and has extensive experience advising national and international companies on corporate, contractual, and regulatory matters.

Currently, Andrea serves as a Senior Associate at Mayora & Mayora, El Salvador Branch, where she provides corporate and notarial legal counsel to leading business groups. Her practice focuses on supporting clients across a variety of industries in corporate, commercial, real estate, and regulatory matters, delivering practical legal solutions aligned with their business objectives.

Representative Experience

Andrea regularly advises national and international business groups on strategic corporate matters, including the incorporation, administration, and reorganization of companies, as well as the management of international corporate structures and offshore entities in jurisdictions such as Panama and the British Virgin Islands. Her practice includes the drafting and negotiation of complex corporate documentation, commercial and investment agreements, financing arrangements, and security structures for companies across a wide range of industries.

She also provides ongoing legal support to major business groups in a quasi in-house counsel capacity, advising on corporate, real estate, and regulatory compliance matters. In addition, Andrea has extensive experience in the protection and management of trademark portfolios and other intellectual property assets, helping clients safeguard and maximize the value of their brands while aligning legal strategies with their business objectives.
