Profesional Summary

Honduran attorney with more than 13 years of experience advising national and international companies, multilateral organizations, and government entities on administrative, tax, corporate, and commercial law matters. She currently serves as a Senior Associate at Mayora & Mayora, where she leads the firm's Administrative and Tax Law practice in Honduras.

Her experience combines a strong private-sector background, including involvement in complex corporate transactions, regulatory proceedings, financing transactions, data protection, and compliance matters, with senior-level positions in the public sector, where she has advised government authorities on governance, public finance, public procurement, transparency, and administrative regulation.

She has participated in mergers and acquisitions transactions, financing projects exceeding US$2.2 billion, thematic sovereign bond issuances, the drafting of public regulations, and institutional strengthening initiatives, establishing herself as a strategic professional with deep knowledge of the Honduran regulatory landscape.

Representative experience

- Extensive experience advising public and private sector entities on administrative, tax, regulatory, public procurement, transparency, and compliance matters, including counseling ministries and government agencies on budget formulation, institutional governance, public credit operations, and the strengthening of public finances.
- Contributed to the drafting of legislative initiatives submitted to the National Congress of Honduras, particularly on fiscal transparency and public resource management.
- Advises clients in highly regulated industries, including banking, telecommunications, energy, education, technology, and financial services, on corporate, regulatory, and compliance matters.
- Has participated in more than 20 local and cross-border M&A transactions across Central and South America, including due diligence, transaction structuring, negotiation of complex deals, syndicated financings, security packages, and development investment funds.
- Represents clients in strategic regulatory proceedings before sector-specific authorities and competition agencies.
- Recognized by Chambers and Partners for five consecutive years as Associate to Watch in Corporate/Commercial in Honduras.
- Served as a speaker on the Orange Economy and Creative Entrepreneurship for the Universidad Tecnológica de Honduras (UTH) and the Inter-American Development Bank (IDB) in 2022.
